These are the people . . .

Juniors and Seniors letting off steam.

An editor and a Sub-Freshman.

Two of the elite.

The star athlete.

Students in a classroom, showing the seriousness of purpose that characterizes most Smith High pupils.

Just a couple of cheerleaders at the end of the football season.

Members of a club in a game of pretend.

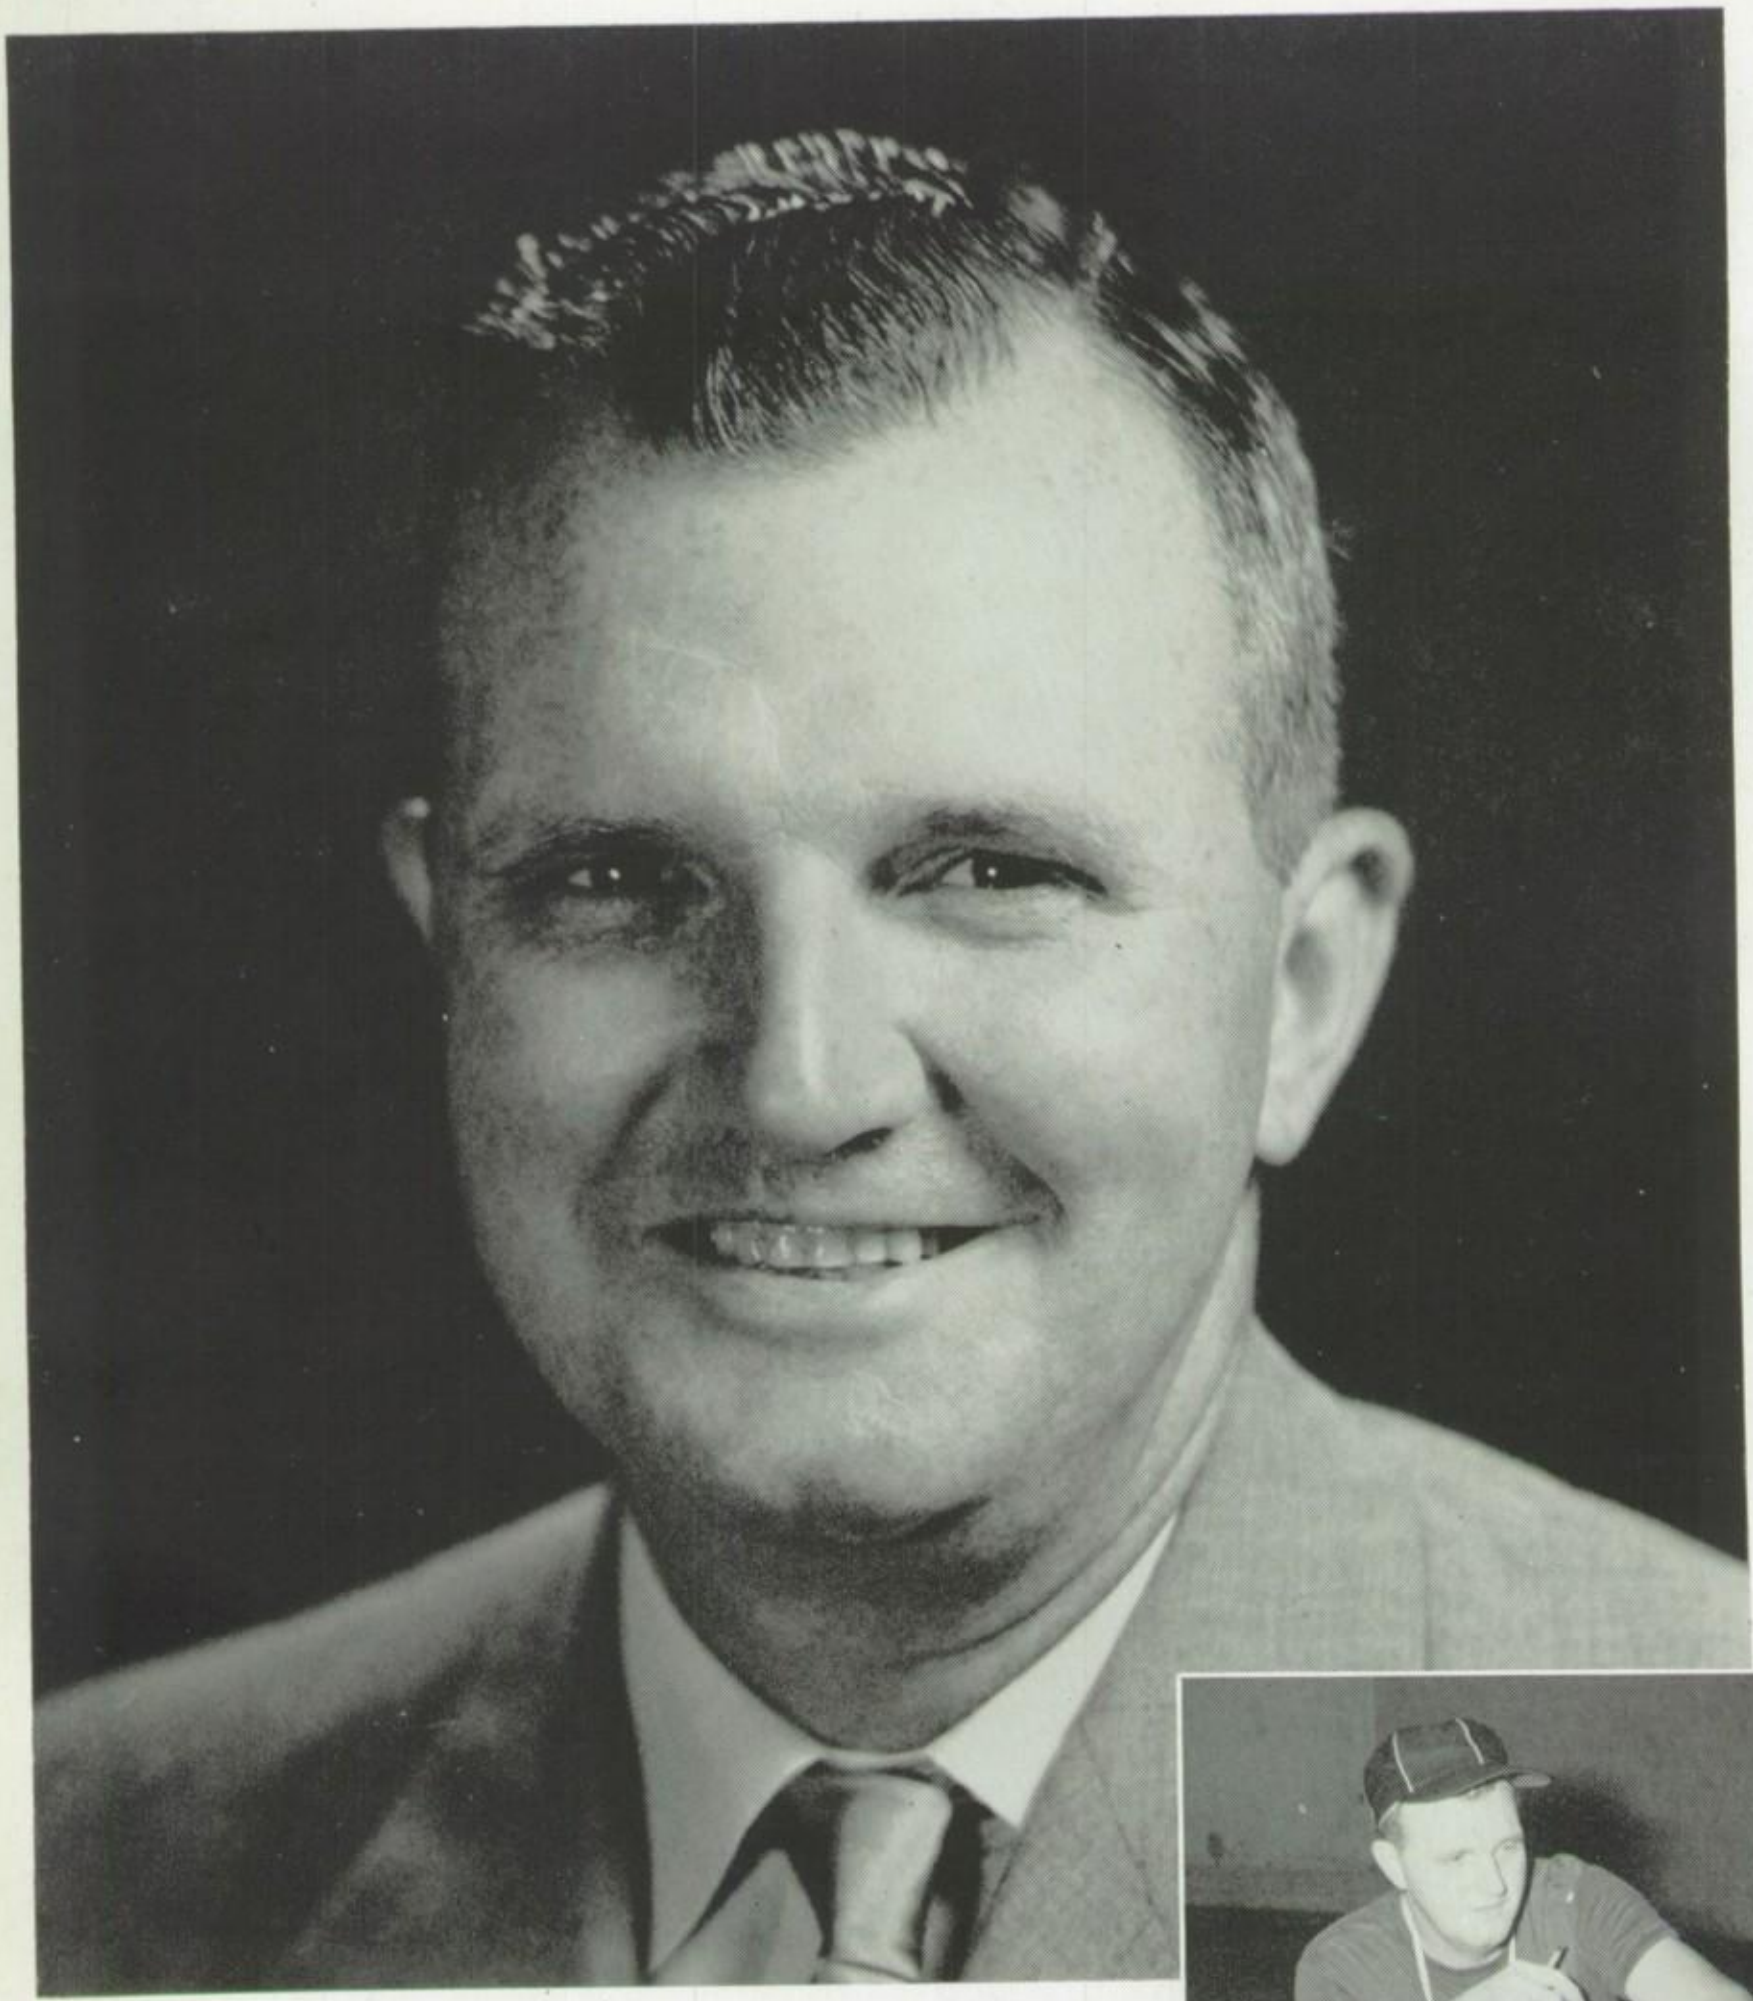
A Smith student overcoming an obstacle.

. . . involved in the plot



We Dedicate . . .

For his stellar performance both with our student council and our 1954 basketball team, the Smithsonian Staff respectfully dedicates the 1955 yearbook to Coach S. C. Watkins. Under his leadership Smith High student government has reached an all time high and last year our basketball team reached the state finals. Loyal, conscientious, and ready to help in all school affairs, Coach Watkins rates with the best. It is with pleasure that the 1955 staff gives him our academy award.

. . . Our Administration

The curtain would have never risen on "The Smith High Story" if it had not been for our angels—the administration down at the City Hall. Because of them our school has been as we like it, clean, well operated, and in good condition.

G. L. KEITH
Our Principal, Leader, Companion

Our staff, consisting of the secretaries, librarians, the nurse, dietitian, and custodian, all work together with Mr. Keith, our principal, the faculty, and the students to bring about the harmonious relationship and learning which make our school what it is.

With this fine staff and faculty, Smith High can always be expected to do its part scholastically and socially.

There is an inevitable bond of friendship which binds the staff, faculty, and students in a natural cause—the search for knowledge.

P.T.A. Officers — Our Underwriters

The P.T.A. has backed "The Smith High Story" to the end. Through their support this production has been unexcelled.

They have helped the school in many ways. One of their major contributions has been sponsoring our school dances.

The Parent-Teachers Association was founded in 1897 by Mrs. Theodore Birney as the National Congress of Mothers and developed into the National Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Association in 1908 and changed to the National Congress of Parents and Teachers in 1924 of 4,500,000 members.

The Smith High P.T.A. is a local unit of this federation in which parents and teachers are working together to advance the efficiency of our public school system.

SENIOR CLASS

MRS. GILLESPIE
Sponsor

And here are the stars—members of the 1955 graduating class. Twelve long years of hard work are behind them. No matter how rough the road they have stuck it out—and have earned their right to be classed with Smith High's "great." As seniors they have been the recipients of many attentions—notably the Junior-Senior Prom. As members of clubs, athletic teams, military, and band, they have found many places to demonstrate their right to play the leading roles in The Smith High Story.

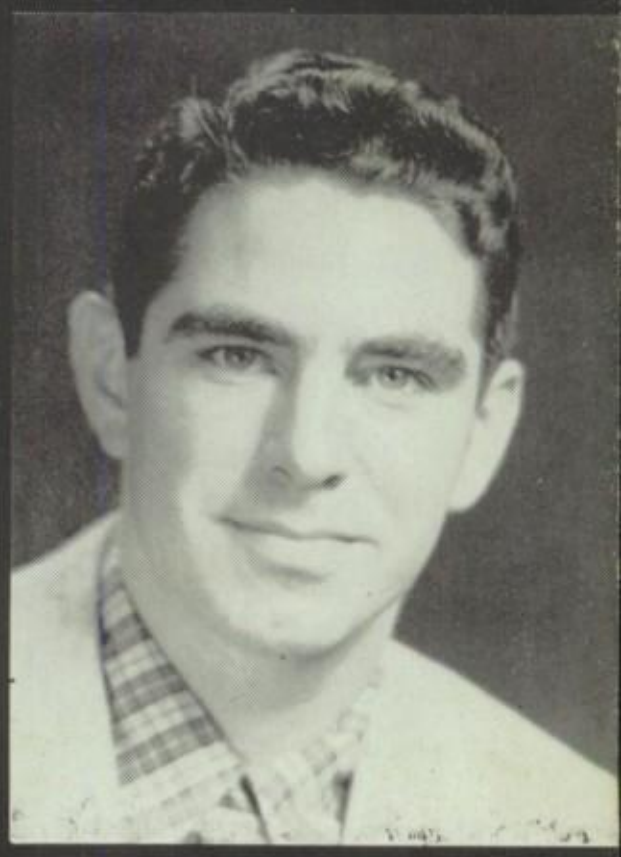
The Supporting Cast . . .

JUNIOR CLASS

MR. NASH
Sponsor



Always when there is a play you have the stars—and then you have the supporting cast, the actors who play right along with the stars and share some of the reflected glory, while at the same time making it possible for the stars to shine all the brighter. Such has been the function of the Junior Class. It has taken a lot of hard work for the Juniors to climb the ladder this far—and this hard work will have to continue if they are to be given the leads in next year's production.

After a successful Junior year, the supporting cast is looking forward to the stardom of their Senior year.

As the gossip buzzes among the Juniors, the main topics seem to be Senior rings, the Junior-Senior prom and the craze of pink and black. Then there are the new subjects such as problems of democracy and social living.

Our main goal in clubs will be the National Honor Society which is reserved only to seniors who have high scholastic averages.

We will try to be active in many organizations so that our Senior year will be filled with loads of fun and many activities.

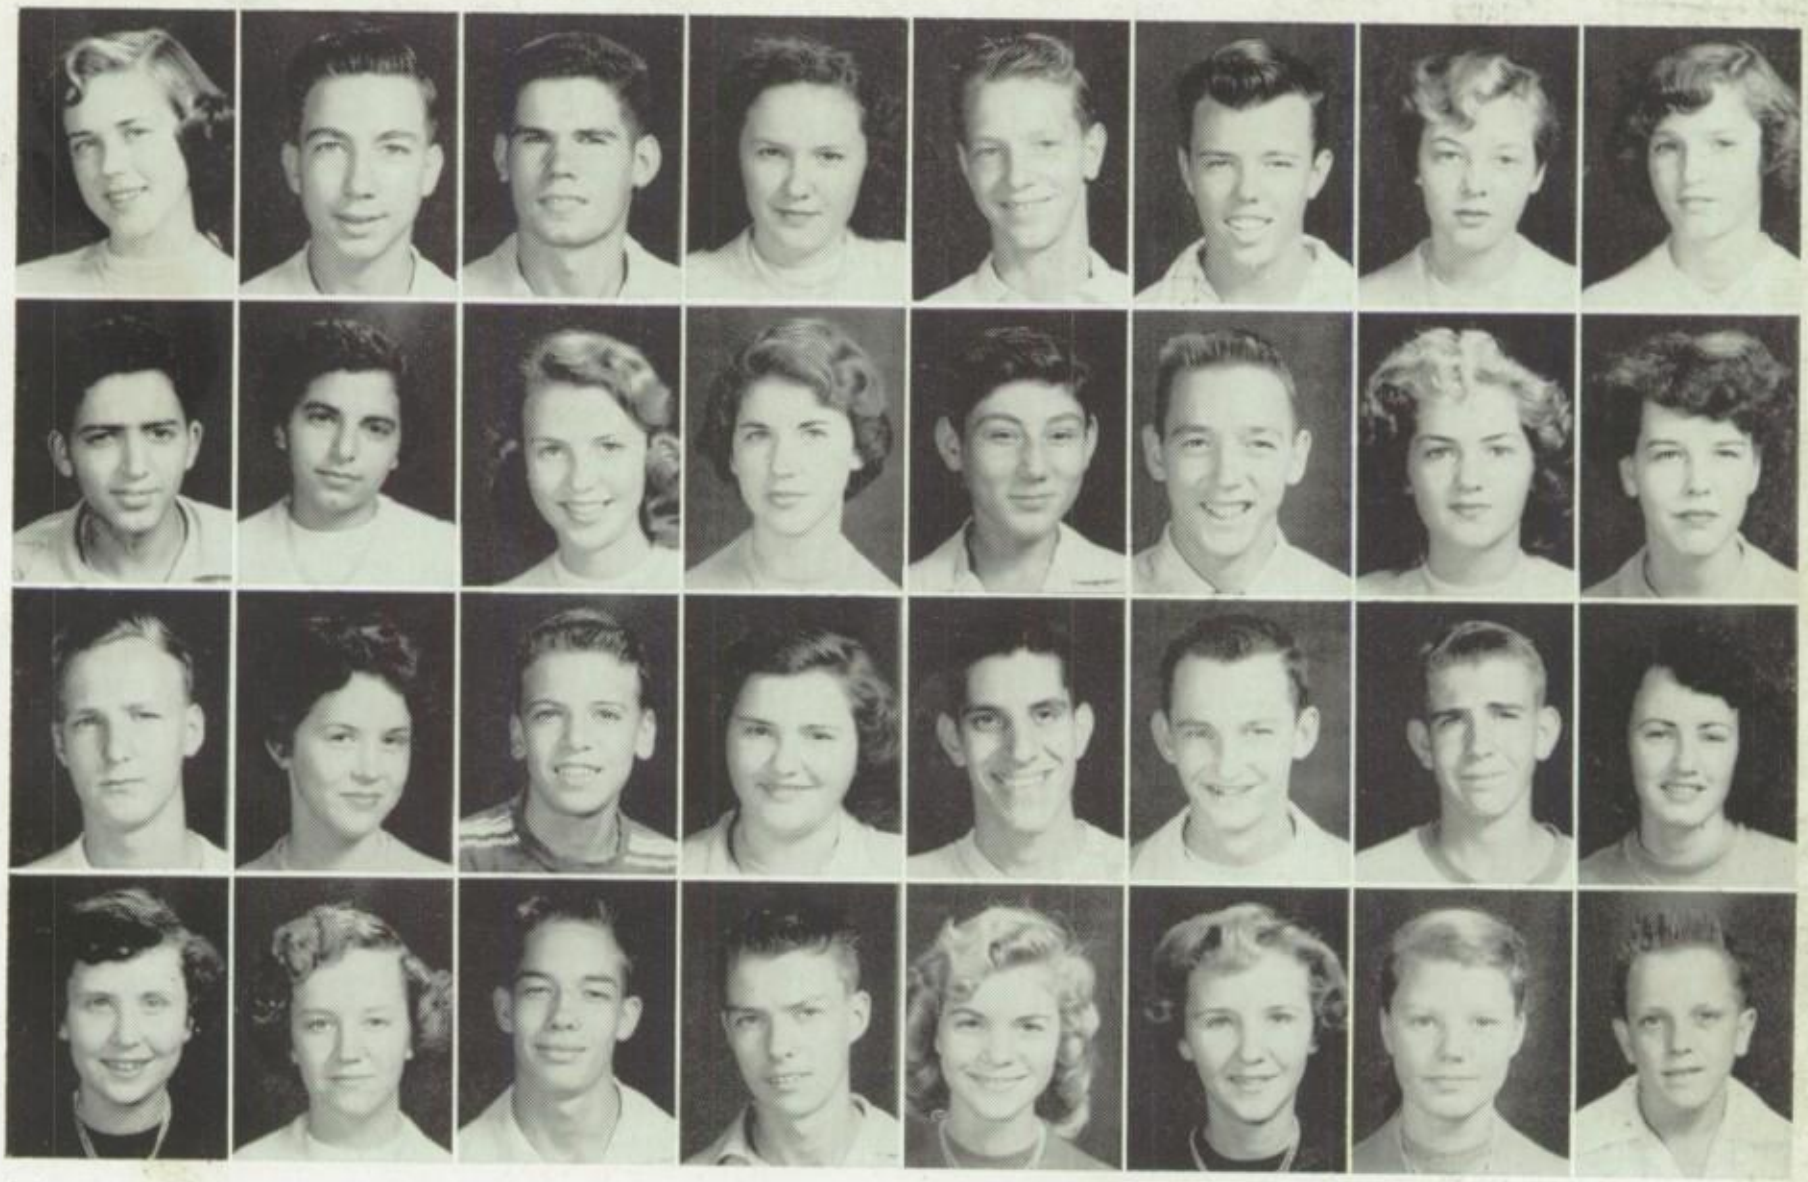
Character Actors . . .

SOPHOMORE CLASS

MISS FORBUS
Sponsor

A play is often made or ruined by its character actors, the individuals who while playing relatively minor roles often steal the show. The Smith High Story owes a major part of its success to the Sophomores. Outstanding in every feat they've attempted they are especially proud of their "pink elephant" which they have won for the second year. The stamina and vitality of the class of '57 promises that The Smith High Story will have a good run for at least two more years.



Row One: Adams, Allen, Allbright, B. Anglin, J. Anglin, Arnold, Atchenson, Ayers. Row Two: N. Azar, P. The Ingenues . . .

FRESHMAN CLASS

No play would be complete without its ingenues, those fresh young actors who while often throwing the oldsters into a dither at the same time bring life and vitality to a production that might otherwise be a little slow in catching on. There has been nothing slow in this year's Freshman Class. Laughter . . . Applause . . . Costumes . . . Lights . . . All of these proclaimed the vaudeville show put on by these young whippersnappers on the occasion of the annual stunt night to be quite a creditable performance.

The Sub-Freshmen as always entered Smith unaware of the many changes to which they would have to adjust. As they have gone on their merry way, however, during their year as understudies to the Smith High cast, they have performed perfectly in all their activities. One of the most important events of the year was "Baby Day." Many showed their school spirit by coming dressed as babies on that day. Any time the Sub-Freshmen have been called upon to render a service for their school they have been ready.

The Smith High Band played an important role in the Smith High Program for the school year 1954-55. Among many of the parts this fine organization contributed to the program were: half-time shows for football games, marching in various parades, playing at assemblies, representing Smith at the state music festival, and providing the music for graduation exercises.

The R.O.T.C. unit at Smith High has lived up to its excellent reputation this year as it has in years before.

This fine organization has assisted in many ways in carrying on the program at Smith this year. From football games to the most serious of occasions, the Smith High R.O.T.C. unit has helped to give and maintain the excellent reputation our school has achieved.

We know that this organization will continue to be one of the main factors in the Smith High program of the future.

Boys' Varsity Basketball

Row One: Ford, McDaniel, Gregory, Koler, Hawkins. Row Two: Braden, Smith, Ferguson, Warren, Echols.

Basketball tradition is rich at Hoke Smith High School under Coach S. C. Watkins. His hard hitting teams have failed to win a spot in the State Tournament only once in the last eight years it has been a senior high school, starting in 1948.

"We have no depth, and we have had better talent, but this is the easiest bunch to coach I ever had," insists Watkins. "They come to play, they like it, and they hate to lose."

The Smithies, who came as close as any team in the state this year to beating Baker's state defending champs, don't have what most coaches regard as ideal talent.

Through their individual strength, the Smithies won nine of 10 Region 3-AA games and tied Sylvan for the Southern Division Championship. They also won a berth in the State Tournament again this year.

Bobby Braden, a slim six footer who is president of the student body, is a great shot from the corners and all medium distances, a fine rebounder, and a proven star from three years standing.

Even Watkins isn't quite sure who the other regular forward is. Ken Warren? Eugene Gregory? Donald Ballard? Tommy Shadix? All are promising upperclassmen, but are a year or so away from star proportions.

Center Lamar Echols, 6-4 sophomore, is the city's second leading scorer. He is a fine rebounder, probably Georgia's most promising soph.

Don Ford and Bill McDaniel, a pair of undersized guards, are the lads who play better than they know how. Their extreme speed and racehorse style makes them crowd pleasers and make them feared by foes.

Smith entered the city tournament with four of our men placing in a list of 35 city leaders. Lamar Echols had an average of 20.1; Bobby Braden, 16.1; Bill McDaniel, 10.6, and Don Ford, 10.2

Truly, these are the athletic heroes of the Smith High Story.

Echols and Warren are up after the ball as Braden and McDaniel guard opponents.

Girls' Varsity Basketball

Row One: Pappas, Causey, Harper, Born, Hardy, Hayes, Smith, Childres. Row Two: Christopher, Yearwood, Ward, Coach Kimmel, Lee, Griffin, Aaron, Eblen.

We have reason to be proud of our girls' basketball team this year. Out of ten games in the Southern Division of the city, they won eight. They were the first City League team in two years to defeat Southwest. The lassies went all the way to the semi-finals in the City Tournament, placing fourth there and second in the Southern Division.

Their Coach, Mr. Lloyd Kimmel said, "These girls overcame several handicaps and developed into the best girls' basketball team I have ever coached."

Helen Born, co-captain and forward, and Ruane Aaron were the only two first first-stringers to return. In the words of the coach they measured up to everyone's expectations, Helen being an exceptional ball handler and Ruane improving progressively as the season advanced. Peggy Hayes and Barbara Lee, guards, were standouts in every game, Peggy being the first girl from Smith to make the city "All Tournament Team." Reba Ward and Barbara Harper filled the other forward positions. Barbara has an uncanny eye for the basket and Reba came up from a "sub" and proved to be an excellent pivot and a valuable member of the team. Ann Hardy, co-captain, who alternated with Barbara Harper, also contributed much to the success of the team.

The subs came through when needed, adding much to the team's most successful season.

Born goes up with opponent as Harper and Ward stand by.
